

Success Defined
A Student-Centered
Transition Planning Project

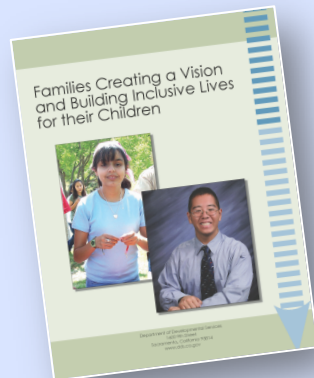

Success Defined is an innovative project designed to develop skills and strategies for transition-age youth and their families. Empowered students and parents work in partnership to define their own understanding of a successful life and establish the action needed to achieve one.

Focus of Transition Project

- Youth Development: Decision-Making & Leadership Skill Building
- Career Preparation: ODEP Initiatives
- Post-Secondary Education: THINK College Initiatives
- Healthcare Transition: Next Steps to Adult Medicine
- Community Inclusion: Meaningful Participation
- Mentors & Coaches: Developing Trusted Partnerships
- Information Technology: Assisted and Adaptive Tools
- Family Empowerment Project: Building Capacity through Advocacy

Tools for Creating a Vision of Inclusion

- FAMILY-Focused VISION
- STUDENT-Developed MISSION
- Goals and Dreams
- Purposeful and Inspiring
- Supports and Services Defined
- Think • Plan • Do

For More Information Contact

Sharon Fallis, Project Coordinator
UC Davis MIND Institute, CEDD
2825 50th Street • Sacramento, CA 95817
Sharon.Fallis@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu
916•703•0227